

INSIGHT

Emergency bridge design following historic flood

In April 2017, historic flooding devastated southern Missouri. When an important bridge serving a rural community was completely washed out, Bartlett & West stepped in to deliver a new design for Missouri Department of Transportation in 23 days.