

INSIGHT

Six sustainable building practices and how to integrate them into your facility

SUMMARY

Sustainable building practices limit environmental impacts and can reduce long-term facility costs. In this webinar, we'll explore five resource-efficient methods of construction and facility management.

KEY TOPICS

- Net-Zero buildings
- Six resource-efficient building practices
    - Optimizing site potential
    - Optimizing energy use
    - Protecting and conserving water
    - Optimizing building space and material use
    - Enhancing indoor environmental quality
    - Optimizing operational maintenance practices
- Certifications: LEED, Green Star and EDGE

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Katie Vasbinder
Architect Designer

Katie is a licensed architect with expertise in sustainable design and LEED administration. She works on building projects for a variety of client types, including government, higher education, industrial and commercial. In addition, she wrote and published a book about sustainable house design.

RECORDING DURATION: 36 minutes

REGISTER FOR THE WEBINAR